THE MOSES SCHOOL BILL

There is a wholehearted approval in this section of the bill introduced in the General Assembly for the State of Virginia to take over the transportation of pupils to and from the public schools. This of course has been a major factor in the inability of rural counties to match the quality of educational opportunity offered in the cities. Cities do not have to spend so large a portion of their school budgets on transportation of pupils.

An argument can be made for the Moses bill on grounds of economy of total cost, better and more uniform transportation and safety of pupils. But this is supplemented by consideration of the financial burden upon those school systems less able to pay.

We do not know what chances of success the Moses bill will have in the next session. It is not planned for in the Governor's budget. It may be something that will have to be accomplished by stages. However, we are for it, and know that it will be glad to note the Governor's support in the Virginia Assembly for better rural schools.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

We can't recall ever having seen a better example of democracy at work than the mass meeting here last Wednesday. The meeting was called to give citizens a chance to study the school building needs of the county and to be heard with their ideas on what should be done to meet the problem. Citizens turned out in large numbers and they spoke up. It was truly thrilling to see the school building needs of the county and to be heard with their ideas on what should be done to meet the problem. GETTING NEARER

In just over three weeks, voters of the Fourth District will go the polls in a special election and name a Congressman to succeed the late P. H. Dreyer. It is important that there be a full vote. At this time of the year, there may be bad weather, or on election day, February 17. We suggest that you check your eligibility, attend to registration, if necessary, or a transfer if you have moved. If you can't get to the polls on election day, apply now to vote by mail. And circle February 17 on that new 1948 calendar you have, so you won't forget!

Play safe—drive carefully.

SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10
DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 12:1-8

When We Work With God

Lesson for January 25, 1948

Dr. E. Stanley Jones

I had a thousand lives to give, they would all gladly go to the wasteful souls of Asia. Paul would have been enheartened in the day that he wrote II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10, and Romans 12:1-8, to have heard someone talk as Dr. Jones talked that afternoon, in our lesson for Sunday, Paul is summoning every Christian to the highest possible commitment to the will of God as we go forth in the task to beseech all men to be reconciled unto God through Jesus Christ, who hath taken upon himself the iniquity of us all, "that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Thus we come to see the significance and the meaning of the memorial service for Sunday's lesson, "We are all workmen for God," I Corinthians 3:9.

PEOPLE WHO WORK WITH GOD

READ Hebrews 11th chapter for a picture of some of the noble souls who really worked with God, by faith, as the writer delights to put it.

Abraham, for example, "went out, not knowing whither he went," but when he came to the end of life's day, he was accounted the friend of God, "choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, because he saw him who is invisible."

HOW WE WORK WITH GOD
I read again that eleven chapter of Romans to discover how the men and women named there worked with God. Two words will quickly come to light—faith and obedience. They believed God, and they obeyed God. Junior boys and girls will do well to recall some of the heroes of history—men like Washington and Lincoln and Lee—and in every instance you will discover that they, too, believed God and obeyed God. Remember the story of Washington kneeling in prayer in the snow at Valley Forge?

We cannot work with God unless we believe and obey him. "Can two walk together except they be agreed?" You cannot please your earthly father unless you believe him and obey him.

GOOD WORKMEN ESSENTIAL
WE COME now to the deeper implications of the lesson, revealed in II Corinthians 5:20 to 6:10. "We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain; but in all things approving ourselves in much patience, in afflictions, in distresses, in watchings, by kindness, by love unfeigned, by the power of God."

Here is the acid test of doing the work of an ambassador of Christ—we must first be fully committed to him before we can persuade others to accept him as Saviour and Lord. We shall not have better homes and better churches until we first have better Christians. We shall not have better business until we first have better business men.

And the only way by which we become good workmen is through the redeeming, transforming grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

JOY OF WORKING WITH GOD
WHY did Dr. E. Stanley Jones answer so quickly about giving a thousand lives to the benighted, wasteful souls of Asia? Because he had discovered the unpeakable joy of working with God in reconciling men unto him. The largest, surest wages in this world is the experience of working for and with God. "What I kept, I lost; what I gave, I have."

Do you believe it? It is difficult to believe until you try it. Indeed, I would say that it is beyond all imagination to grasp the meaning of working with God. You have to take Christ at exactly what he meant when he said, "Come and see."

"When we walk with the Lord, in the light of his word, what a glory he sheds on our way!"
